TERMS OF ACCEPTANCE

When a patient seeks chiropractic care and we accept a patient for such care, it is essential for both to be working towards the same objective.

Chiropractic has only one goal. It is important that each patient understand both the objective and the method that will be used to attain it. This will prevent any confusion or disappointment.

Adjustment: The chiropractic procedure used to eliminate or reduce a subluxation. An adjustment is the specific application of forces to facilitate the body's correction of vertebral subluxations, thus restoring proper position, and normal neurological and mechanical function to the vertebrae and nervous system. Adjustments are vital for the optimal health of the body.

Health: A state of optimal physical, mental and social well-being, not merely the absence of disease or infirmity.

Vertebral Subluxation: A Misalignment of one or more of the 24 vertebra that results in an alteration of nerve function, and normal neurological, and mechanical functions of the body. A subluxation may not always produce pain and discomfort, but always results in a lessening of the body's inborn ability to express its maximum health potential.

We do not offer to treat any disease or condition other than vertebral subluxations. However, if during the course of a chiropractic spinal examination, we encounter non-chiropractic or unusual findings, we will advise you. If you desire diagnosis or treatment for those findings, we will recommend that you seek the services of a health care provider who specializes in that area.

Regardless of what the disease is called, we do not offer to treat it. Nor do we offer advice regarding treatment prescribed by others. OUR ONLY PRACTICE OBJECTIVE is to eliminate a major interference to the expression of your body's inborn ability to express health. Our only method is specific adjusting to correct vertebral subluxations.

I _____ have read and fully understand the above statements.
(print name)

All questions regarding the doctor's objectives pertaining to my care in this office have been answered to my complete satisfaction.

I therefore accept chiropractic care for my self/child on this basis.

Informed Consent To Care

You are the decision maker for your health care. Part of our role is to provide you with information to assist you in making informed choices. This process is often referred to as "informed consent" and involves your understanding and agreement regarding the care we recommend, the benefits and risks associated with the care, alternatives, and the potential effect on your health if you choose not to receive the care.

We may conduct some diagnostic or examination procedures, if indicated. Any examinations or tests conducted will be carefully performed, but may be uncomfortable.

Chiropractic care centrally involves what is known as a chiropractic adjustment. There may be additional supportive procedures or recommendations as well. When providing an adjustment, we use our hands or an instrument to reposition anatomical structures, such as vertebrae. Potential benefits of an adjustment include restoring normal joint motion, reducing swelling and inflammation in a joint, reducing pain in the joint, and improving neurological functioning and overall well-being.

It is important that you understand, as with all health care procedures, results are not guaranteed, and there is no promise to cure. As with all types of health care interventions, there are some risks to care, including, but not limited to: muscle spasms, aggravating and/or temporary increase in symptoms, lack of improvement in symptoms, burns and/or scarring from electrical stimulation and from hot or cold therapies, strains and sprains. With respect to strokes, there is a rare but serious condition known as arterial dissection that involves an abnormal change in the wall of an artery that may cause the development of a thrombus (clot) with the potential to lead to a stroke. This occurs in 3-4 of every 100,000 people, whether they are receiving health care or not. Patients who experience this condition often, but not always, present to their medical doctor or chiropractor with neck pain and headache. Unfortunately, a percentage of these patients will experience a stroke. As chiropractic can involve manually and/or mechanically adjusting the cervical spine, it has been reported that chiropractic care may be a risk for developing this type of stroke. The association with stroke is exceedingly rare and is estimated to be related in one in one million to one in two million cervical adjustments.

It is also important that you understand there are treatment options available for your condition other than chiropractic procedures. Likely, you have tried many of these approaches already. These options may include, but are not limited to: self-administered care, over-the-counter pain relievers, physical measures and rest, medical care with prescription drugs, physical therapy, bracing, injections, and surgery. Lastly, you have the right to a second opinion and to secure other opinions about your circumstances and health care as you see fit.

I have read, or have had read to me, the above consent. I appreciate that it is not possible to consider every possible complication to care. I have also had an opportunity to ask questions about its content, and by signing below, I agree with the current and future recommendation to receive chiropractic care as it is deemed appropriate for my circumstance. I intend this consent to cover the entire course of care from all providers in this office for my present condition and any future condition(s) for which I seek chiropractic care from this office.

WE ARE REQUIRED BY LAW TO MAINTAIN THE PRIVACY AND SECURITY OF YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION, TO PROVIDE YOU WITH NOTICE OF OUR LEGAL DUTIES AND PRIVACY PRACTICES WITH RESPECT TO YOUR PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION, AND TO NOTIFY YOU FOLLOWING A BREACH OF UNSECURED PROTECTED HEALTH INFORMATION. WE MUST FOLLOW THE PRIVACY PRACTICES DESCRIBED IN THIS NOTICE WHILE IT IS IN EFFECT.

Our Promise

Dear Patient:

This notice is not meant to alarm you. Quite the opposite! It is our desire to communicate to you that we are taking seriously Federal law (HIPAA—Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) enacted to protect the confidentiality of your health information. We never want you to delay treatment because you are afraid your personal health history might be unnecessarily made available to others outside our office.

Why do we have a privacy policy? Very good question!

The Federal government legally enforces the importance of the privacy of health information largely in response to the rapid evolution of computer technology and its use in healthcare. The government has appropriately sought to standardize and protect the privacy of the electronic exchange of your health information. This has challenged us to review not only how your health information is used within our computers but also with the Internet, phone, faxes, copy machines, and charts. We believe this has been an important exercise for us because it has disciplined us to put in writing the policies and procedures we follow to protect your health information when we use it.

We want you to know about these policies and procedures which we developed to make sure your health information will not be shared with anyone who does not require it. Our office is subject to State and Federal law regarding the confidentiality of your health information and in keeping with these laws, we want you to understand our procedures and your rights as our valuable patient.

We will use and communicate your HEALTH INFORMATION only for the purposes of providing your treatment, obtaining your payment, conducting health care operations, and as otherwise described in this notice.

We must follow the privacy practices described in this Notice while it is in effect. This Notice takes effect February 16, 2026 and will remain in effect until we replace it.

Ask Us to Correct Your Medical Record

You can ask us to correct health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete.

Request Confidential Communications

You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address. You may, for example, request that we only communicate your health information to you privately with no other family members present or through mailed communications that are sealed. We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

Ask Us to Limit What We Use or Share

You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.

With the exception of certain disclosures, you have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of your health information in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. To request an accounting of disclosures of your health information, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Official. If you request this accounting more than once in a 12-month period, we may charge you a reasonable, cost-based fee for responding to the additional requests.

Obtain a Copy of This Privacy Notice

You have the right to obtain a copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices directly from our office at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose Someone to Act on Your Behalf

If you give someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

In the case of an emergency, where you are unable to tell us what you want, we will use our best judgment when sharing your health information only when it will be important to those participating in providing your care. If a person has the authority by law to make health care decisions for you, we will treat that patient representative the same way we would treat you with respect to your health information.

Authorization to Use or Disclose Health Information

We are required to obtain your written authorization in the following circumstances: (a) to use or disclose psychotherapy notes (except when needed for payment purposes or to defend against litigation filed by you); (b) to use your Protected Health Information (PHI) for marketing purposes; (c) to sell your PHI; and (d) to use or disclose your PHI for any purpose not previously described in this Notice. We also will obtain your written authorization before using or disclosing your PHI when required to do so by (a) state law, such as laws restricting the use or disclosure of genetic information or information concerning HIV status; or (b) other federal law, such as federal law protecting the confidentiality of substance abuse records. You may revoke that authorization in writing at any time. In certain circumstances involving sensitive health information, federal law may require a written attestation prior to disclosure. Upon receipt of the written revocation, we will stop using or disclosing your health information, except to the extent that we have already acted in reliance on the authorization.
